WEIDNESDAY MORN'G, JUNE 18, 1851. THE U. S. REVENCE .- The fiscal year of the United States is just closing, and the revenue promises to be much greater than was expected. The receipts from customs up to June 6th (three weeks less than the year) were $14,-352,131 which is an increase of ceven millions over the same time last year.--The land sale receipts of the year, so far as returned, are over two millions, and will probably go up to two and a last millions. The entire revenue of the year will probably reach fifty willtions, which is five millions more than the estimate of the Secretary of the Treasury. Two millions of the custous revenue comes from California .-Despite of adverse influences in some points, the country is enjoying a high degree of presperity, as these lacts prove. Yet it is to be feared that in some respects this is not a real, a sale

-Mr. John Wise, the aeronaut, has notified the people of Philadelphia of his intention to make an extraordinary Balloon Ascension from that city some time about the middle of this month .--His balloon is forty feet in diameter, caon this occasion he is to be accompanied by his family, two passengers, and two scientific gentlemen.

-Mr. J. L. Stevens has in the London Exhibition the model of a paddlewheel steamer, the properties of which he contends, are such that a vessel of large proportions would make the run across the Atlantic in two or three days tess than the time now occupied.

-Henry Box Brown, who excuped from Slavery to Philadelphia in a box is exhibiting throughout England a panorama of Slavery. He has the identiend box with him, and was lately packed in it, and went from Bradiord to Leeds. After their arrival at Locds, the box, still containing Brown, was placed in a coach, and preceded by a band of music and banners representing the stars and stripes of America, paraded through the principal streets of the town. Aftes he had been confined in the box for two hours and three-quarters, he was taken out in presence of epoctators.

11,7 An Old Lady, 90 years of age, named Elizabeth Wollinger, died last week in Upper Dublin township, Montgottery co., where she had long been a resident, and until within six months of her death, occupied a small house en tirch alone. Upon examining the house after her decease the neighbors found carefully stowed away in different places, no less than $1400, all bankable money, except a $50 bill, together with some $2,000 in bonds and mortgagesmaking, in all, the snug little sum of over $3400. The old lady always represented herself as very poer. She was accustomed to have her taxes remitted, as it was generally believed, according to her own story, that she had only the interest of $500 to live upon - Philadel phia Ledger.

THE TAPPOLE DRESS .- We hear that tivo ladies have been seen in Broadway in a sort of sunion and compromise cosson e, half Turkish half Yenkee, with a little touch of the circus. This is merely "the transitional state" to which we have affeded in another paragraph. Hy-and-by the tadpole stage will have been passed, and we shall sea these gentionianly ladies in full massoline uni tium. The next singe we suppose will melicale cames, cigars, and cocktails,-Section Times.

II字Bloomerism in all the large cities is uphill work. Ladies, who have been accustomed to lead in the fashions, do not countenance the thing at all; in fact it is a dead failure. The New York Express says, a man was seen near Breadway on Saturday morning in petficunts, and with a bonnet on. When asked by the police why he wore this costume? he replied, "My wife has taken my clothes, and I have taken hers? This kind of notoriety is not likely to be convenient for modest young ladies, or even for respectable old women, to acquire, and hence our comparative freedam from Bloomerism in Gotham. This eart of thing doce not thrive in New York, as it is likely to do in many parts of the country. It is the custom there, when anything outremakes its appearunce in the streets, for the crowd to gather round it and investigate it.

In Paltimore, there has been one peculiar instance (and the only one we believe) of the Bloomer folly. Says the "Sun," of that city, "she was scatly dressed in the new Turkish costome, and attracted considerable attention; and was accompanied by a person dress ed in female attire; but the poetry of the exhibition was partially destroyed when the Torkish trowsers turned into Holiday street, and entered the door leading to the third tier, of the Holidaystrect Theatre."

"In Boston" says the New York Express, "when they do get hold of an ism or a notion, they pursue it with a fortytranscendentalist energy, and we are not surprised to see that the Bloomer development has been somewhat more rapid there than in any other of the large cities.

Bloomerism, we helieve has reached its culminating point in Boston. There were but two or three "Bloomers" seen in the streets yesterday; and those were girls in the low teens, for whom the costume is well enough; but it requires more than ordinary courage for a weman "fixt, fair and forty," to aftempt to force the fashion .- Boston Transcript,

THE LATE MR. TERRY .- The Lynchburnh Virginian of Thursday comes to us with its columns clad in the habiliments of mourning for the loss of its late esteemed and able editor, A. W. C. Terry, Esq. whose melancholy fate we have already noticed. The Virginian gives its readers a detailed account of the cureer of Mr. Terry, and alludes in feeling terms to the sad events by which the community of Lynchburgh has been thrown into so much gloom. Mr. Terry having expired at 9 o'clock on Sunday evening, his remains were lettinged by one of the largest luneral processions ever known in Lynchburgh. The ceremonics were of a most impressive character, and exhibited in a high degree the sympathies of those who had been called upon to pay a last sad tribute to departed worth. As an additional evidence of the deep feeling in behalf of Mr. Terry and the household he left behind to mourn their irreparable loss. the good citizens of Lynchburgh have, with a promptifude that does them immortal credit, contributed the bandsome sum of $10,000 for the education and support of Mr. T.'s children .- Richmond Republican.

Lere at present. We have had no rain of any consequence since August last, and the country is actually hurnt up .-Many of our roads are impassible for want of water. Corn is $6,50 per fanega, (about 150 pounds), and in some putts of the state of Zacatecas is selling at 89. Flour just ground down is worth $20 per 300 pounds, and other things in proportion. The loss of animals would not be credited in any other place We know of one estate which lost, 1, 400 head of sheep in March last, and it has been worse since. Of course there is literally no trade at present, as the prople are either maintained by charity, or are eating every thing that comes in their way. Every day until it rains will be worse, and we cannot expect any commercial prosperity until another and a good harvest of Indian corn is gatherel. On the 25th ult., we had a sharp trost, which has injured the wheat crop. That's produced by irrigation, and was just caught in the ear,22

HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM CALIFORNIA. SAN FRANCISCO IN ASHES. Loss $13, 000, 000.

New ORLEANS, June 13, 1851. Tue eteninship Alabama has just arrived, with two weeks later news from California, the dates being to May 15 .-She came via Acapulco. Her nesve is of great importance.

A terrible fire occurred in San Fran eiseo, laying in ashes properly to the amount of $15,000,000.

Among the buildings destroyed are the Custom House, Union, Parker's National, New World, City Deliannico's 1765 on the side of the men; while, and the Exchange Hotels, also Rose's there were only 81 cases in which both buildings, and the offices of the Steam-al new examples have been made, Miss Clarennos .- We read the following notice of Miss Clarendon in Wil lis's Home Journal:

This singularly beautiful and entimsiastic young creature—far too fragile and angelie-looking for the profession she has undertaken—is to appear in the autumn as an 'operatic vocalist," The announcement says: "Among musical noveltles, we may announce the fact that Miss Clarendon, an American lady, known some few years ago as a beautiful and spirited actress, will make her debut carly in the autumn as an operatic vocalist. Miss Clarendon, for five years past, has been preparing herself for the lyric stage, and line studied two or three years with Garcia and other to New York with other competent masters. Her voice is a very remarkable one, in which she unites the three registera, soprano messo and soprano contraite; and her skill is said to be equal to the execution of the most difficult music. It is predicted that she will be Jenny Lind No. 2. There will be much interest in the appearance of this lady and we are curious to know where she will make her debut?

CHOOSING LOVERS .-- If our sex were wise, a lover should have a certificate from the last woman he served, how he was turned away before he was received into the service of another; but at present any vagabond is welcome, provided he promises to enterinto your livery. It is wonderful that we will not tako a footman without credentials from his last moster; and in the great concern of life we make no scrupte of falling into a treaty with the most natorious of feader in his behavior against other women. But this breach of commerce belween the sexes proceeds from an unaccountable prevalence of custom, by which a woman is to the last degree reproachable for being deceived, and a mon suffers no loss of credit for being a deceiver.— Tattler.

COMBAT FOR A WIFE.-They had a ludicrous way in old times of settling vexed love suits. Here is an instance which we take from an exchange:-

Two gentlemen of high birth, the one a Spanierd and the other a German, having rendered Maximilian II. many services, they each for recompense. demanded his natural daughter, Helena Schnsequin, in marriage. The prince, who entertained equal respect for them both, could not give either the preference, and after much delay he told them that from the claims day both had to his attention and regard he could not give his assent for either to marry his daughter, and they must decide it by their own prowess and address; but as he did not wish to risk the loss of either, or or both by suffering them to fight with offensive weapons, he had ordered a large bag to be brought, and he who was successful enough to put hisrival into it, should obtain his daughter. This strange combat between two gentlement was in the presence of the whole largerial Court, and lasted balt an hour. At length the Spaniard yielded to the German, Ambre Elbard, Buron of Teiberd, who, when he had got him into the bag took him on his back and placed him at the Emperor's feet, and on the following day married the heautiful Helena.
